Loan Options

IMPORTANT: Students MUST have first completed a FAFSA and received a Financial Aid Award Letter from FDLTCC BEFORE applying for a Direct, SELF, or Direct PLUS loan. An FDLTCC Award Letter is NOT needed for the Alternative loans. It is recommended, however, that students complete the FAFSA and review their Financial Aid options BEFORE applying for Alternative loans. We strongly recommend you seek out and read all of the information regarding the loan(s) you are however, that students complete the FAFSA and review their Financial Aid options BEFORE applying for Alternative loans. It is important that you are aware of your Rights and Responsibilities for the money you borrow. For all loan programs, a student is considered in their first year when they have completed and/or transferred a total of 0-29 credits, and in their second year after they have completed and/or transferred a total of 30 or more credits.

Application deadline: All loan applications must be received by the Financial Aid Office 5 business days before the end of the term.

Your Loan Options:

Direct Loan: Once a student has received a Financial Aid Award Letter, they may complete the online Direct Loan application process at http://www.fdltcc.edu/ > Current Students > Financial Aid > Loan Application Process. Paper applications are available in the FDLTCC Financial Aid Office.

Dependent students who need more loan funds may get more Unsubsidized Direct Loan IF their parents have been denied a PLUS Loan based on their credit history. Parents can submit a Consent to Obtain Credit Report For Federal Direct Parent Loan to the FDLTCC Financial Aid Office, and the Financial Aid Office will then enter the information on the Federal Direct PLUS Loan website to see if they are denied a Parent Loan. The parent be notified in writing of the results of the credit check, and if they are denied, the Financial Aid Office will post a revised Award Letter to the student’s eServices account. If a parent is approved based on their credit check, they are NOT obligated to apply for a PLUS. The Consent to Obtain Credit Report For Federal Direct Parent Loan form can be downloaded from our website at http://fdltcc.edu/paying-for-college/loan-application-process/.

(July 7, 2017)
IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO REMEMBER ABOUT LOANS:

1. Keep a copy of all forms and applications for your records, and print copies of all on-line forms.
2. Loan Eligibility, “How much can I apply for?”: First you must complete the FAFSA, and based on your FAFSA information your loan eligibility will be calculated and listed on your Award Letter. For a copy of your current Award Letter, go to www.fdltcc.edu, “Current Students”, “Student eServices”, “Account Access”, login, click on “Switch to Student e-services”, “Financial Aid”, select the correct semester, then click on “Awards”.
3. Scholarships may reduce eligibility. Any form of funding you receive may reduce your loan eligibility, even if you receive it after receiving your loan funds. If you have been awarded or received scholarship funds, please contact the Financial Aid Office for your new, correct loan eligibility.
4. Cumulative Loan Limits. The cumulative limit for the subsidized loan is the lesser of 150% of the length of your program or $23,000, whichever comes first. The combined limit (both subsidized and unsubsidized) is $57,500.
5. Pro-ration may reduce eligibility. If this is your last term at FDLC, your loan may need to be reduced based on the following formula, which is called “Proration”: # of credits in the last term / 24 credits.
6. Application deadline: Loan applications must be received by the Financial Aid Office 5 business days before the end of the term.
7. Loan Fees: The Direct Loan (DL) program charges an Origination Fee for each Direct Loan. The Origination Fee is deducted before you receive your loan money. Contact Direct Loan at the number or website below for specific information.
8. Loans must be paid back: A loan is financial aid, but it is not a grant. Before you borrow, make sure you can afford the monthly payment. You must repay the funds you borrow, any fees associated with the loan, and any interest accrued. Borrow only what you need!
9. Multiple disbursements: Regulations require multiple disbursements of student loans. You will get half of your loan during Fall semester and the second half of your loan during Spring semester (or if you took out a loan for one (1) semester, you will receive the first half of your loan during the first half of the semester, and the second half at the midpoint of the semester.)
10. Right to Cancel loans: You have the right to cancel all or a portion of your loan within fourteen (14) days of receiving the loan funds. If you wish to do this, contact the Business Office.
11. Enrollment level required: You must be enrolled for six (6) credits to receive loans. If you drop below six (6) credits, future disbursements will be cancelled.
12. First-year or second-year student? For Direct Loans, a student is considered in their first year when they have completed and/or transferred a total of 0-29 credits, and in their second year when they have completed and/or transferred a total of 30 or more credits.
13. First loan? 30-day Hold Rule: If this is your first Direct loan, you will receive your first loan disbursement at least 30 days after the beginning of the loan period.
14. Disbursement Information: We apply financial aid funds to your FDLC bill beginning the 9th day of the term. If there are any funds leftover, they will be disbursed to you via BankMobile using the method you chose. Upon completion of Admissions, a BankMobile Refund Selection Kit will be sent to the address you have given FDLC. You will have two disbursement options: (1) use your personal bank account (“Another Account”), (2) create a BankMobile Vibe account. Please make your BankMobile disbursement choice ASAP to ensure timely disbursement. To check if you have loan funds leftover or you still owe the school money, check your eServices account online at www.fdltcc.edu > Current Students > Student eServices > Account Access > login > Bills and Payment > View Account > Show All Detail.
15. Loan Exit Counseling: Before you leave FDLC, you will be required to complete Loan Exit Counseling. FDLC Financial Aid Office will mail you a notice when this needs to be done.
16. Want additional information? If you would like more information about student loans, go to the Direct Loan website (www.direct.ed.gov) or www.studentloans.gov.
17. Difficulties repaying? Notify your lender if you are having difficulties repaying your loan(s). You may be eligible for one of the following repayment options:
   - Deferment (Postponement of payment due to being enrolled in six or more credits at an eligible college)
   - Forbearance (Postponement or reduction of payment due to economic hardship or illness)
   - Income contingent repayment (Adjusting the payment amount based on your income)
18. Notify your lender if you:
   - [ ] Want to make extra payments or pay off early
   - [ ] Change your name or address
   - [ ] Change schools
   - [ ] Drop below half-time (6 credits)
   - [ ] Graduate
   - [ ] Can’t make payments
