To encourage professionals new to the chemical dependency field, ten scholarships are available to attend the Minnesota American Indian Institute on Alcohol and Drug Studies. Scholarships will cover the cost of the conference registration fee, meals served at the conference, and DORM accommodations only. All travel expenses and spending money must be furnished by the recipient.

Scholarship recipients will be expected to assist conference coordinators and honored speakers during the week of the Institute in the following ways:

- Introduce honored speakers at the beginning of their presentation (biographies provided)
- Distribute presentation materials to participants
- Distribute and collect sign-in sheets and evaluation forms
- Other duties as requested

The MAIADS Planning Committee will review all scholarship applications and choose the recipients based on need and career path aspirations. Priority will be given to those who have not received scholarships in the past.
