16. Minnesota Transfer Curriculum (MnTC): If this course fulfills an MnTC goal area, state the goal area and list the goals and outcomes below:

See www.mntransfer.org

Goal Area(s): 6 & 8

Goal and Outcomes:
Goal 6: The Humanities and Fine Arts

Goal: To expand students' knowledge of the human condition and human cultures, especially in relation to behavior, ideas, and values expressed in works of human imagination and thought. Through study in disciplines such as literature, philosophy, and the fine arts, students will engage in critical analysis, form aesthetic judgments, and develop an appreciation of the arts and humanities as fundamental to the health and survival of any society. Students should have experiences in both the arts and humanities. (NOTE: The phrases in parentheses denote the original text that has been replaced with “the Ojibwe language.”)

Students will be able to:
- Demonstrate awareness of the scope and variety of (works in the arts and humanities) the Ojibwe language.
- Understand (those works) the Ojibwe language as expressions of individual and human values within a historical and social context.
- Engage in the (creative process or interpretive) oral performance of the Ojibwe language.
- Articulate an informed personal reaction to concepts related to the Ojibwe language (works in the arts and humanities).

Goal 8: Global Perspective
Goal: To increase students' understanding of the growing interdependence of nations and peoples and develop their ability to apply a comparative perspective to cross-cultural social, economic and political experiences.

Students will be able to:

- Describe and analyze political, economic, and cultural elements which influence the Ojibwe language (relations of states and societies) in its historical and contemporary dimensions.
- Demonstrate knowledge of cultural, social, religious and linguistic differences.
- Analyze specific (international) language problems, illustrating the cultural, economic, and political differences that affect their solution.
- Understand the role of a world citizen and the responsibility world citizens share for their common global future.
