11. Catalog/Course description:

The nature and possibilities of film as an art are examined in this course so that the viewer may gain a better understanding and appreciation of how the art works. Emphasis is centered on the relationship between the techniques of film making and their creative application. Also emphasized are the affinities film shares with literature. In addition, the student will investigate the history of cinemas, become acquainted with contemporary filmmakers, and will be exposed to critical approaches to film viewing. Designed to create intelligent and critical film viewers, the course incorporates film and textual materials. (Prerequisite: ENGL 1101) (Meets MnTC goal area 6).

| Evaluate the choices screenwriters and directors make when creating films, particularly when translating fiction to film or remaking a film. | C | |
| Understand the historical and social contexts which shape the way diverse cultures and points-of-view are portrayed in film. | D | |

WINHEC Cultural Standards:

- 1. GIKENDAASOWIN – Knowing knowledge: To develop human beings who value knowledge, learning, and critical thinking and are able to effectively use the language, knowledge, and skills central to an Ojibwe-Anishinaabe way of knowing.

2. GWAYAKWAADIZIWIN – *Living a balanced way: To develop balanced human beings who are reflective, informed learners who understand the interrelatedness of human society and the natural environment, recognize the importance of living in harmony with creation, and are able to apply a systems approach to understanding and deciding on a course of action.
3. ZOONGIDE'EWIN – *Strong hearted: To increase the students' capacity to live and walk with a strong heart, humble and open to new ideas and courageous enough to confront the accepted truths of history and society.
4. AANGWAAMIZIWIN – *Diligence and caution: To develop students' capacity to proceed carefully, after identifying, discussing, and reflecting on the logical and ethical dimensions of political, social, and personal life.
5. DEBWEWIN – *Honesty and integrity: To increase students' capacity to think and act with honesty and integrity as they understand and face the realities of increasingly interdependent nations and people
6. ZAAGI' IDIWIN – *Loving and Caring: To encourage students' acceptance of the diversity within their school, community, and environment by developing healthy, caring relationships built on respect for all.
7. ZHAWENINDIWIN – *Compassion: To expand students' knowledge of the human condition and human cultures and the importance of compassion especially in relation to behavior, ideas, and values expressed in the works of human imagination and thought.

16. Minnesota Transfer Curriculum (MnTC): List which goal area(s) – up to two – this course fulfills.

See www.mntransfer.org

Goal Area(s): 6

Goal 6: The Humanities and Fine Arts

Goal: To expand students' knowledge of the human condition and human cultures, especially in relation to behavior, ideas, and values expressed in works of human imagination and thought. Through study in disciplines such as literature, philosophy, and the fine arts, students will engage in critical analysis, form aesthetic judgments, and develop an appreciation of the arts and humanities as fundamental to the health and survival of any society. Students should have experiences in both the arts and humanities.

Students will be able to:

- Demonstrate awareness of the scope and variety of works in the arts and humanities.
- Understand those works as expressions of individual and human values within a historical and social context.
- Respond critically to works in the arts and humanities.
- Engage in the creative process or interpretive performance.
- Articulate an informed personal reaction to works in the arts and humanities.
